

Fighting for Human Rights in Europe's New Democracies: What Would UK Withdrawal from the ECHR Mean?

At a time when we are beginning to witness an erosion of the Convention standards in many parts of Europe, this event will address the practical ways in which the Convention has assisted those working to establish a culture of human rights protection in Russia, Ukraine, Armenia, Serbia and Montenegro. We hope you can join us for this fascinating discussion.

Chair

Philip Leach

Professor of Human Rights Law at Middlesex University and Director of the European Human Rights Advocacy Centre

Panel

Biljana Braithwaite, Head of the AIRE Centre's Balkan Rule of Law Programme

Vahe Grigoryan, Human Rights Lawyer from Armenia and Legal Consultant at EHRAC

Anna Maralyan, Human Rights Lawyer from Russia

Ramute Remezaite, Legal Consultant at EHRAC, specialising in Azerbaijan

6 - 7.30pm Tuesday May 5th 2015

Hardwicke Building, New Square, Lincoln's Inn, London
WC2A 3SB

Entry is free but places are limited to please RSVP to administrator@hrla.org.uk

1.5 CPD